

Four Stars Superior between the Harbor and the City

Around the harbor Hamburg is real, cosmopolitan and fascinating. And nowhere else is the metropolis more modern, tangible and international than in the middle of the city. The Madison Hotel is perfectly located between the harbour, the HafenCity and the downtown area – right in the heart of Hamburg. Owner Marlies Head has shaped and molded the Four Star Superior Hotel in Schaarsteinweg with her distinctive, charming style. With its perfect combination of casual luxury, the comfort of a First Class Hotel and the exclusive functionality of serviced apartments the Madison Hotel has secured a leading ranking among Hamburg's hotels.

»I would like our guests to experience the Madison as a unique hotel,« says Marlies Head. »It is, for this reason, important to see everything through the eyes of our guests and to be close to people. I enjoy being a hostess with heart and soul. Consequently the Madison has developed its own style – one of individuality, with a personal, friendly atmosphere and a high demand on quality.«

Lodging and Living: 166 Rooms and Suites to Feel at Home in

Business travelers and Hamburg tourists from around the world as well as long-stay and weekend guests appreciate the central and quiet location of the Madison Hotel and the atmosphere to feel at home in. And this begins with an exceptional amount of space: the 166 light-flooded rooms and suites have a generous 35m<sup>2</sup> to 110m<sup>2</sup>. Warm colors, premium materials and modern no-frills design treat you to stylish living. Modern, discreet kitchenettes complement the furnishings. The light and friendly baths have large sinks, shelving and plush bathrobes. With high-speed internet access, an answering machine, extremely quiet air-conditioning and Sky-TV all the rooms are technically state-of-the-art. For an unforgettable stay in Hamburg, the penthouse »Top of Town« offers, along with luxurious comfort, an exquisite view over the rooftops of the Hanseatic City and the harbor. The room rates start at 130 Euro for a single room and at 150 Euro per person for a double, the delicious breakfast buffet costs 15.50 Euro.

Work and Celebrate: Meetings, Events and Conferences

Director Thomas Kleinertz and all 84 employees at the Madison Hotel are enthusiastic hosts and hostesses. »Friendly, natural and committed is how we create an atmosphere in which our guests can instantly feel comfortable,« comments Thomas Kleinertz. »This naturally includes perfect service.« Perfection in every detail with regards to conferences and events is also a matter of course for the Four Star Superior Hotel. Five function rooms in a range of sizes, with variable room concepts and excellent technical equipment are available. The banquet and event professionals at the Madison Hotel work closely together with their customers beginning with planning and implementing all agreements to the execution of meetings, events and celebrations.

Body and Soul: Delight in »Marley's« Restaurant and »Die Bar«, Relax at MeridianSpa

The hotel restaurant »Marley's« entices you to dine on culinary delights of international flair from light Californian cuisine to Euro-Asian specialties and traditional northern German fare. In an atmosphere of stylish leather furnishings, elegant loom chairs, warm complementary colors and indirect lighting Head Chef Meinolf Busemann and his team indulge their guests. An excellent and diverse buffet makes for a delicious breakfast. »Die Bar« offers classic and exotic cocktails, excellent wines as well as exquisite whiskys.

A further wellness service is also available to the guests through the Madison Hotel's partnership with the Health Club MeridianSpa: Awaiting you in the same building on 3.500m<sup>2</sup> is a splendid spa and fitness landscape, devoted to the relaxation and health of body, mind and soul.

Press Contact: Schellenberg & Kirchberg PR, Tel +49 40 593 50 500, mail@schellenberg-kirchberg-pr.de

